Notables To Gather With Old Timers

Fire Menace Deemed Great and Celebration To Be Held In Park

Program Holds Many Attractive Features—Medal to Oldest Pioneer

After making a tour of inspection with U. S. District Ranger V. H. Vetter and County Forester Spence D. Turner, W. R. Humphries, chairman of the Arboretum celebration, came to the conclusion that the fire hazard, under present circumstances and conditions, is exceedingly imminent and recommended to the executive committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society that the formal program on next Sunday afternoon be held in the City Park on West Central Avenue.

The recommendation was unanimously adopted and the celebration will therefore take place in the City Park on West Central Avenue and not in Bailey Canyon as previously announced.

"I feel," said Mr. Humphries in discussing the subject before the executive committee, "that without adequate preparations against fire in the Canyon it would be criminal to hold any public meeting. A gathering would jeopardize the lives and property of the visitors and it would jeopardize the watershed in the canyon. We have been successful in evading fires in the past years and I think every citizen and every power in the city should do everything possible to prevent fire and to safeguard the canyon against fire."

"When the Arboretum is installed this fire menace will be forever removed. But until it is in operation, or until the city has taken some preventive measures, the canyon should be rigidly guarded against visitation in summer. For this reason I suggest the celebration be transferred to the City Park."

The program begins at the City Park at 4 p. m. It is as follows: Invocation, Father Peter Hanley. Assembly song, "Oh Susannah," (marching song of '49), George M. Sullivan, song leader.

Greeting, Mayor Earl D. Topping. Welcome to Pioneers, Capt. Josiah Osgood.

Response by visiting old-timers. Assembly song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," George M. Sullivan, song leader.

The Sierra Madre Botanical Society, W. R. Humphries.

The Arboretum, Charles G. Adams, president Los Angeles City Planning Association.

Address, Gov. C. C. Young. Address and presentation of medal to oldest pioneer, Lieut. Gov. Buron R. Fitts.

Remarks, Congressman W. E. Evans.

Solo, "Trees," Mrs. Randolph Wood with Mr. Oscar Rasbach, composer, at piano.

Benediction, Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard.

Lemonade will be served free to all visitors by a committee headed by Mrs. John Osgood.

A committee of Sierra Madre pioneers and descendants of old-timers will look after the visiting pioneers. The Sierra Madre committee includes H. E. Allen, W. S. Andrews, W. P. Caley, Arthur N. Carter, Greer Caskey, C. M. Clark, J. C. Dickson, former postmaster, City Clerk Louis Dietz, John J. Hart, J. N. Hawks, W. R. Humphries, Richard S. Jensen, C. W. Jones, first mayor, Justus Kraft, S. R. Norris, Andrew Olsen, Martin Olsen, C. J. Pegler, Preston Schwartz, L. E. Steinberger, Milton Steinberger, Harvey Steinberger, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, S. R. G. Twycross, E. Waldo Ward, T. M. Webster, Miss Lydia Wright, Capt. Josiah Osgood, Mrs. Annetta Carter, Mrs. Julia Henszey, Mrs. C. E. Cook, Miss T. H. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones will be hosts to Dr. Victor LeRoy Duke, president of the University of Redlands; Councilman Henry Isaacs will be host to Congressman W. E. Evans and to W. B. Mathews of the department of power and light of Los Angeles.

Post No. 297 of the American Legion will be host to Lieut. Gov. Buron R. Fitts. Mrs. John Osgood will be hostess to Gov. C. C. Young; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Humphries will be hosts to Col. H. B. Hersey of the U. S. Weather Bureau; Mayor Earl D. Topping will be host to Asst. Chief County Forester Everett R. Stanford.

There will be many other distinguished guests.

Among the conspicuous delegations which will be present are

CHURCHES MUST LOOK OUT FOR TAX EXEMPTION

The board of supervisors is now sitting as a board of equalization and Supervisor Fred T. Beatty urges that all churches which have neglected to ask exemption and all charitable organizations which can legally ask for reduction of assessment, appear before the board, in its offices in the Hall of Records, not later than July 15th. Under the law this is the only period of the year when exemptions may be granted and organizations failing to arrange their exemptions will have lost their opportunity.

Mrs. W. G. Leroy of 118 Bonita Avenue had as a guest on Saturday Mrs. Dr. Roosevelt of Denver, Colo., a niece of the late President Theodore Roosevelt. The two ladies were neighbors and close friends many years ago in Lombard, Ill.

Mayor Line Of La Porte Visits Here

Mayor John Line of LaPorte, Indiana, arrived last week to visit his wife and daughters, who have been residing on North Auburn Avenue since last winter. They came here for the health of Miss Marjorie, who is showing substantial improvement. Mr. Line was for many years engaged in the wholesale fruit business before serving as a public official, first for the county and later as mayor. He has been prominent in the affairs of the Masonic bodies of LaPorte.

An interesting item appears in a recent issue of the LaPorte Herald-Argus which was brought to the News office by Mr. Line. It is in the 25-years-ago column and is as follows:

"'Lucky' Baldwin, the well known Californian, is in town, having arrived today from Kingsbury where he has been visiting County Coroner H. H. Long. Mr. Baldwin was born in Terre Coupe and is the great horseman and millionaire mentioned so often in the newspapers."

Mr. Line says that just before leaving LaPorte he mentioned Sierra Madre as his destination to a friend who immediately recalled having worked for Baldwin in the heyday of the old Santa Anita rancho and its racing stable. Mr. Line will remain here with his family about a month.

Will Build Moorish Type Home in Fall

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ziegler of Altadena have purchased thru the office of W. R. Humphries one of the most slightly lots in the Scenic Point subdivision. This subdivision map has just been accepted by the county and already petitions to build and improve the streets are before the City Trustees. The Zieglers intend building in the fall, making Sierra Madre their headquarters, as their interests are held in West Covina, where they own an extensive Walnut Grove.

J. G. Clark, proof reader on the Los Angeles Herald, has taken a house at 196 East Montecito and may decide to locate in Sierra Madre. Mr. Clark was formerly engaged in the commercial printing and publication business in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Poehler drove to San Diego to spend the week end holiday with relatives. They report the entire ocean front along the coast highway to have been occupied by campers and picnickers.

groups from Montebello, Pasadena, Altadena, Glendale, Rosemead, Inglewood, Huntington Beach, Los Angeles, Santa Paula, Santa Barbara, San Diego, Fallbrook, Glendora, Monrovia, Alhambra, San Gabriel, Arcadia, Azusa, the Los Angeles County Pioneer Society, Santa Barbara County Pioneer Society, the Pasadena Pioneer Society, El Monte, Puente, Corona, Covina, Claremont and Westminster.

Dr. William Tyler Miller, a member of the Arboretum committee, spent Wednesday afternoon in Sierra Madre and in company with Walter Poehler and Arthur N. Carter thoroughly cruised Bailey Canyon.

Among the pioneer guests will be Mr. Henry Guess of Rosemead, who was the first American child born in Los Angeles County. The oldest pioneer guest present will undoubtedly be Mr. Galusha Cole of Pasadena, who is 101 years old.

Post Office Will Move to So. Baldwin

Henry Isaacs Will Erect New Building To Be Ready October First

Added Room Will Provide Better Working Conditions for Force

Sierra Madre post office will be located at No. 25 South Baldwin Avenue after October 1. It will be housed in a new building which will be erected by Henry Isaacs especially for the purpose. The building will be one story in height, and approximately 35x50 feet in size, built to house the post office only.

Mr. Isaacs has not yet had detailed plans drawn but says he expects to have an attractive structure which will not only be a substantial improvement for South Baldwin Avenue but will present a highly creditable appearance such as the post office of a progressive city deserves.

The Isaacs property on Baldwin Avenue has fifty feet of frontage and extends as far back as the east line of the hotel building. The fifteen feet not used by the post office building will be reserved for an alley entrance for the office and for the seven store buildings fronting on Central Avenue, which are also owned by Mr. Isaacs.

As an additional improvement on Baldwin Avenue Mr. Belohlavek who owns the garage building on the corner, has agreed to erect a wall to surround the open area at the rear of his building. This space is at present used for automobile washing and general utility yard.

The latest type of new post office equipment will be purchased by Mr. Isaacs to outfit the office. Under the terms of the lease which will run for ten years the landlord furnishes the equipment as well as light, heat and water. The consideration is $1440 yearly.

The need for larger quarters was one of the factors in causing the post office department to accept Mr. Isaacs' proposal for the new office. The present office room is only 20 feet wide and even though an extension were added at the rear, the proportions of the room would not permit satisfactory arrangement of the equipment for efficient service.

Substantial improvement of the present post office building is promised by Mr. Caley when the office is moved. The choice location for a retail business gives assurance that it will not be vacant long and Mr. Caley proposes to remodel it to suit the needs of a tenant.

Fall Is Fatal To Hiker In Santa Anita

Phillip Carpenter, 19-year-old Los Angeles boy, died at the Pasadena Hospital Wednesday as the result of a fall in the Big Santa Anita Canyon on Monday. It was a tragic ending for a Fourth of July outing party which consisted of Carpenter, Miss Margery Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson of 2825 West View Street, Los Angeles.

The accident occurred in the canyon gorge near what are known as the Hermit's Falls. The party were on their way up the canyon. The slope was particularly steep and the footing uncertain. According to Johnson, he had gone ahead and Carpenter was assisting the two women. Fearing the insecure trail, he called to them to allow him to go ahead where he could make sure of their safety. Almost at the first step past them, the narrow ledge gave way and Carpenter plunged headlong to the rocks in the canyon bed.

While Johnson said to do what he could for Carpenter's wounds, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Woodward hurried to the ranger's cabin and gave the alarm. Ranger Vetter, Johnson and others constructed a litter and carried Carpenter over the difficult climb to the Big Santa Anita dam, where the Sierra Madre police car met the party. He was then taken to the Pasadena emergency hospital where it was found his skull was fractured and his body terribly bruised. He was later removed to the Pasadena hospital where he passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. McGrath of Los Angeles are now located at 58 East Laurel Avenue and may decide to make their permanent home in Sierra Madre.

T. S. POUND HAS LONG RECORD AS L. & N. ENGINEER

Sierra Madre friends of Thos. S. Pound of Birmingham, Ala., will be interested to know that he recently celebrated his 41st anniversary as an engineer for the Louisville & Nashville railroad by taking his engine out on an 185-mile run. Mr. Pound is well known here by reason of a number of visits in Sierra Madre. Mrs. Pound and their daughter, Miss Lizzie Lee Pound, have resided for some time at 193 North Lima.

The following story of Mr. Pound's anniversary run is clipped from the Birmingham Daily News: "On the "Forty-one years an engineer on the anniversary of his birth. That is the record of Thomas S. Pound. He is celebrating the latter event by taking his engine out Wednesday on a 185-mile run."

"Forty-one years a locomotive engineer and all that time with one railroad company. That is a record approached by few men. "This is my birthday anniversary and I am going to take my engine out on the run just like I always have done, but I am not going to tell you how old I am, for I still feel like a young man," the engineer said."

Mr. Pound was recently presented a gold badge conferring honorary life membership in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Time to Fix Up Christmas Cheer Bags

A request from headquarters has come to the Sierra Madre chapter of the American Red Cross for the production of certain articles that are supplied annually by the Association. The quota required from Sierra Madre is as follows:

Ten baby dresses, ten coveralls, six sleeveless sweaters, ten Christmas bags for men in foreign service.

Mrs. Welsch has assumed the chairmanship of the production committee, and all the ladies who are willing to assist in this labor of love are requested to meet with her at the parish house of the Church of the Ascension, Wednesday, July 13, at 10 o'clock a. m. for an all-day session. The ladies are requested to bring lunches. Tea and coffee will be supplied by the chapter. All the material will be on hand, except the wool for the sweaters. It is not expected to do that work at the parish house, but Mr. Mitchell, chairman of the chapter, would like to hear from volunteers who will do the knitting. Sleeveless sweaters are those needed and he has the directions and will supply the wool. Two years ago the chapter sent forward twelve sweaters which were produced by volunteers in record time.

After the Christmas bags are made they must be filled and shipment must go on board in San Francisco by October 1st, to secure free transportation. The suggestions made for filling the bags cover toilet essentials, such as shaving and dental cream, soap, safety razors, brushes, sponges, handkerchiefs, socks, cork links, tobacco pouches, small books of fiction, memorandum books, 1928 diary, stationery, pocket knives, hard candy in tin, playing cards, dominoes, checkers, puzzles, harmonicas, cigarettes, tobacco, pipes, etc. These bags when filled are first given to men who are ill at Christmas time, and must travel thousands of miles before reaching their destination. We must bear in mind that the Christmas bag may be the only gift the man receives during the holidays. It should express good will and bring him a touch of "home." Therefore, while the gifts need not be costly, they should be thoughtfully and attractively prepared, as if for one of our own family. Two dollars is the average cost of the contents of a bag. Donations for that purpose are requested and may be left at the News office.

Don't forget Wednesday, July 13th, the Parish House at 10 o'clock a. m., and bring your lunch.

Greasy Rags Cause Of Fire Wednesday

Spontaneous combustion was the cause assigned to a small fire Wednesday afternoon in the garage of Lee Hibbs at 249 Ramona Avenue. Prompt response to the alarm by the fire department prevented much loss. An accumulation of greasy rags was the apparent source of the fire.

Big Holiday Crowds Trek To Mountains

Thousands Pass Thru Sierra Madre On Way to Points In Canyon

One Lone Hiker Falls Afoul of the Law—Smoked Cigarette on Trail

Many thousands of people went into the mountains by way of Sierra Madre for the week end holiday. For perhaps the first time a complete traffic check was held which reveals some interesting information about the use of the trails and canyon highways. Three separate counts were made by the U. S. Forest Service and by the Canyon Improvement Association.

Canyon traffic was checked by President J. R. Thompson of the Improvement Association, assisted by F. E. Ward and F. W. Schlalos. The count was made at the junction of Sturtevant Road and Woodland Drive and included all the Sturtevant Trail mountain traffic as well as that going into Sierra Madre Canyon. The count was kept Saturday, Sunday and Monday from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. and showed a total of 2773 vehicles and 3075 pedestrians.

The vehicles included everything from motorcycles to auto buses and there was no attempt to count the number of passengers. Neither was there any allowance made for repeaters, so that individuals might have been counted several times during the period. The count is more valuable as showing traffic volume than the actual number of people. No count was made during the night when a large number of people "hit the trail" for the mountain resorts and cabins.

Both the Sturtevant Trail and Mt. Wilson Trail were checked for the entire period under direction of Ranger V. P. Vetter. Continuous count was made from 9 a. m. Saturday to 7 p. m. Monday. Vetter Hill and Merl Little were stationed on the Sturtevant Trail above Corum's place, while Adam Mueller and Art Johnson made the count at the foot of Mt. Wilson Trail.

Sturtevant Trail count showed 1026 persons going into the mountains, while the Mt. Wilson Trail had 324 persons. In the nature of things this count showed little or no duplication. Outbound traffic was not counted. Ranger Vetter estimated there were at least 1500 persons in the Big Santa Anita all told, counting those who had been there for some time and those who entered the canyon by way of Mt. Wilson or some other route.

The traffic inspectors cautioned all persons about fire danger and there was no trouble with fire. One arrest was made for violation of the rule against smoking anywhere except at places of habitation. H. Carr of Pasadena was arrested for smoking on the trail above Roberts Camp. He will have a hearing before the justice of the peace in Monrovia today.

Young People At Conference In Claremont

The First Congregational Church of Sierra Madre was represented by four delegates and the pastor at the Young People's Conference held at Pomona College June 25-27. Through the courtesy of the college the conference used the college buildings.

There were forty Congregational churches of Southern California represented, ranging from Santa Barbara and Bakersfield to San Diego and Hemet. The total enrollment was 183 delegates besides twenty-seven members of the faculty and advisors. Courses were given in the Bible and missions, and in methods. The chapel services each morning were held in the churches and were conducted entirely by young people of the conference. Mr. Pritchard acted as chief counsellor for the boys and taught a class in methods. The delegates from Sierra Madre were Linda and Sarah Schwartz, Gertrude Knowles and Arthur O. Pritchard, Jr. The silver cup for the best all-round score by delegates was won by the First Congregational Church of Pasadena with a score of 93.6 per cent. Sierra Madre was eighth with 90.3 per cent. Last year Sierra Madre was first and had the honor of holding the cup through the year.

CAMPAIGN FOR MASONIC CLUB AT UNIVERSITY

Members of the Masonic order in Sierra Madre are keenly interested in the campaign to raise $250,000 for the Masonic clubhouse for students of the University of California at Westwood. Of this amount half is for the building and half for endowment purposes.

Past Master H. E. Allen is chairman of the local committee which is soliciting funds. Other members are R. R. Hartman, H. H. McMillen and Frank Spencer, with Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger representing the Order of the Eastern Star.

The Masonic Club house at Berkeley has been an important factor for good in the student life at the university. It is hoped the present effort will result in the new club house being available when the southern branch moves to the new campus in the fall of 1928.

Veteran of Mail Service Finds a Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Asbury of Glendale have purchased the L. E. Myers home at 503 Manzanita Avenue and have come to Sierra Madre this week to make their home. Mr. Asbury retires this month after thirty-seven years of work in the railway mail service. For a quarter of a century he has had a run out of Los Angeles. Prior to that he served with headquarters in Louisville, Ky.

The railway mail service is a branch of work little understood by the great mass of people to whom it actually means so much. Their work is done at high speed under difficult conditions and requires great concentration. The great mass of information which they must possess is subject to frequent revision and requires constant study. A statistician has calculated that a railway mail clerk must have at command for instant action a greater number of separate facts than are required in any other human occupation.

After so many years of constant activity, with his residence in larger cities, Mr. Asbury is realizing an ambition to have a quiet home away from the city commotion. He believes he has found the place for the home of his dreams in Sierra Madre.

War Veteran Passes Away

Magnus Robert Krauel, a World War veteran, passed away on Sunday at his home, 258 West Highland, where he had resided the past nine months. He was 36 years of age and served two years overseas. His illness was the result of being gassed. He was a member of Sierra Madre Post No. 297 of the American Legion. He is survived by two sisters, Miss Pauline Krauel of Sierra Madre and Mrs. C. Osborne of Alhambra. Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Moreland chapel, and arrangements made to ship the body to St. Louis, Mich., for interment.

Back at Desk After Battle With Flu

W. R. Humphries received a warm welcome when he returned to his real estate office this week after an enforced vacation of several days on account of the flu. Even when confined to his bed he could not be restrained from carrying on some of his multifarious activities in behalf of chamber of commerce, arboretum and other interests.

Mrs. Lena Kramer who, with her husband, Joe Kramer, operates a lunch room at 140 North Mountain Trail, was arraigned before Recorder Forman Monday on a charge of "illegal possession of cider with too heavy an alcohol content. The charge was preferred by Officer Keegan, based on evidence procured Saturday night. Mrs. Kramer was granted a continuance until next week, while her attorney is expected to return from San Francisco. She strongly affirmed her innocence and deposited a $300 bail pending her hearing.

Mrs. L. A. Borradaile and daughter, Miss Grace Borradaile, left on Tuesday for Alaska, expecting to be absent about six weeks. They will also visit friends in San Francisco, Berkeley and Portland. Mrs. Merkellback of San Francisco is visiting with Mrs. Borradaile's sister, Mrs. Anita A. Otero at her home, 391 East Grand View.

Valuable Aid Offered To Arboretum

Leading Landscape Artist Make Generous Offer to Committee

Next Step Will Be Making of Contour Maps of Park Grounds

Sierra Madre Arboretum made material progress at the meeting of the Arboretum Committee on Wednesday evening in the Los Angeles City Club.

Mr. Charles G. Adams, president of the Los Angeles Planning Association and considered the greatest living authority on California landscaping architecture, volunteered his personal services as landscape engineer and architect to the Sierra Madre Botanical Society and to the Arboretum Committee. The significance of this action is immense. It means that the plan for the Arboretum will be made by men whose prestige will command respect from all the leading landscape technicians and park builders in America. Mr. Adams has worked on practically all important estates in California. He laid out the Billings and the Knapp places in Santa Barbara which are considered the models of California landscaping. As the artist handling California contours and vegetation he is considered the last word.

It is also interesting to know that Frederick Law Olmsted, who was represented at the conference, intimated that a similar offer will be made on behalf of his organization. The Olmsted organization is almost 100 years old and is considered the foremost group of park builders in America and one of the leaders of the world. The Olmsted firm laid out Central Park in New York City, the entire park system of Boston, several parks in Washington and innumerable other great park units. In Southern California it is particularly notable for its work on the Palos Verdes estates. Olmsted and his associates have set out 50,000 trees at Palos Verdes in the last year.

The meeting on Wednesday night included the chairman, Frank Shearer, superintendent of Los Angeles parks, Dr. George P. Clements, originator of the Klondike melon, manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce horticultural department and organizer of the Mandeville Canyon Botanical Garden; Dr. William Tyler Miller, co-author with Dr. Bailey of Cornell University in numerous works on botany and one of the leading botanists of the world; Dr. Marcus E. Jones, curator of Botany of Pomona College, one of the great botanical scientists of the world; George C. Robinson, superintendent of Exposition Park; George Gibbs of the Olmsted organization; Charles G. Adams, president of the Los Angeles Planning Association; W. R. Humphries, Arthur N. Carter and Arnold Kruckman.

The discussion started over dinner at 6 o'clock and lasted until after 11 o'clock at night. Various tentative suggestions for development were laid out on maps and the chairman elicited the opinions of all the experts present. The discussion was very full and very thorough and embraced every phase of the subject in order, as the chairman said, to enable every member of the committee to bring his views before the meeting that a starting point for the detailed work might be reached.

The next step determined by the committee is to make contour maps and topographical maps to enable the committee to proceed with its labors. This work will begin next week.

Converts Home into Residential Hotel

Dr. M. H. Braden of New York and Hollywood has leased the old Krebs estate on West Alhambra Street, at which place he is doing extensive reconstruction work with the idea of making the same a residential hotel and resort. Already many guests are enjoying the beauties of this place and over the Fourth many well known people registered. The doctor is assisted by his wife and a large corps of help. The arrangements were made by W. R. Humphries, the real estate man, acting for the principals. The dining room is open to the public and reservations should be made by phone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Caley have returned from San Diego where they spent a week in celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary.

REDUCING with FOOD

By Theo. Hollie

Why not? Food is what we are built of, and it will either build or reduce weight.

People who are carrying excess weight are not necessarily sick. In fact most of them are very healthy and happy.

Of course, if one has to run for a street car sometimes, or your dancing partner can't reach his arm around your precious anatomy, and right there and then you decide you want to reduce.

Here's a tip

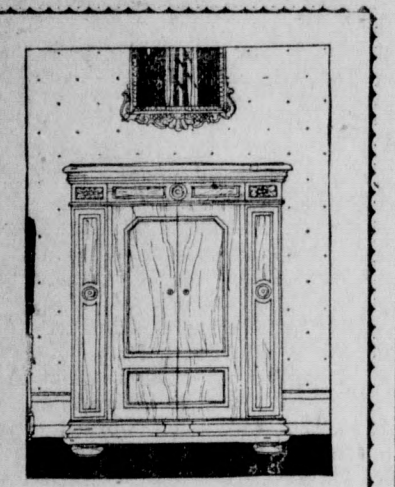

If you walk into a store to buy some reducing remedy, guaranteed to reduce you to zero in two weeks, always take out a good high life insurance policy first, because you'll be flying in the next sweet bye and bye like an old Ford on wings.

Here are a few rules

Eat less candy and things made with white sugar; drink more water and less coffee and tea; eat more greens and less white bread and eat 100 per cent whole wheat bread; less meat and butter; take a good hot salt bath every night as follows: Put half pound epsom salts and half pound plain salt in the bath tub; fill the tub with about five inches of hot water, then cover the tub with a blanket to keep in the steam, then while in the tub (keep the head out and cool), turn on a small stream of hot water until the tub is filled. Stay in and breathe for fifteen or twenty minutes. Drink lots of water before entering the tub. Take two or three of Dr. Hollie's Reducing Crackers with every meal. They are made of greens, like spinach, endive, etc., herbs, like dandelion, fennel, etc., and mineral oil for shortening. They are safe for anyone, and not only reduce, but build up the general condition of health and beauty.

What's Doing At Theatres In Pasadena

The Strand
"The Rough Riders," Paramount's super spectacle road show is the attraction at the Strand theatre this week. This picture has been a year in the making and has cost over $1,000,000. It is hailed by critics as the greatest epic of the season. It is the story of Theodore Roosevelt and his "Rough Riders" of the seventh division of the fighting 7th Cavalry.

The Colorado
"The Callahans and the Murphys," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy which comes to the Colorado Theatre today is a classic in screen fun. From the opening reel to the final fadeout it chronicles the hilarious combats, feuds, quarrels and reconciliations between two neighboring Irish families of the New York tenements.

The Florence
If you like Jetta Goudal on the screen, you usually rave about her. If you are one of those who don't appreciate the exotic, the distinctive, the "different" but are open to conviction you will probably join the rapidly growing legion of Goudal enthusiasts when you see the emotional Jetta in "Fighting Love," now playing at the Florence.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

An actual count made by J. R. Thompson, president of the Canyon Improvement Association, indicated that about 15,000 people had visited the Canyon or passed up Sturtevant Road on July 2nd, 3rd and 4th. This rush of holiday pleasure seekers crowded the parking places and taxed the storekeepers to the utmost. Canyon cottages were all rented and many of the visitors have leased cottages for extended periods.

Residents were delighted this week when the Flood Control Commission crew finished the survey of the stream channel, a line of small red flags indicating the boundary. With the completion of this survey the last obstacle to the road work has been removed. The board of city trustees having expressed themselves in favor of the improvement, residents are hoping that the work will soon begin. The need for new roads was emphasized during the heavy traffic on Monday when one place in the Canyon, the "Friends of Nature" club house, had more than 200 visitors.

On July 4th the Arbeiter-Sanger Society, an organization of Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco singers, held its yearly meeting in the Natur Freunde club house on East Yucca Trail. About 200 singers and guests assembled for the meeting. The day was spent in games and singing and Canyon residents living near by hugely enjoyed the classical music and folk songs reded by the 200 trained voices. The convention of the Arbeiter-Sanger has been in session for three days, the Los Angeles members of the society being the hosts. The next meeting of the order will be held in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bell and their daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Bradford, entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stark of Long Beach at their cottage, Bellview, over the week end.

The regular meeting of the Canyon Improvement Association will be held in the Canyon Club House on Tuesday, July 12th at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Griswold of Three Twin Oaks on Brookside Lane, and Charles F. Kistler of Chino have just returned from a sixteen day auto trip to British Columbia. They reported the Redwood Highway marvelous altho not entirely completed. Elk were seen browsing in the dense forest among ferns and sweet briar which grew as high as the automobile. The Indian marathon race was on and the inhabitants along the way were quite excited as the eight racers passed through. Mad Bull in the lead and Flying Cloud finishing second.

The Griswold party then continued up the coast to Oregon and Washington, ferrying five times before reaching Vancouver, B. C. They found the Oregon caves very interesting and despite the lateness of the season the Mt. Ranier road still was blocked with snow. At this point they were amused at seeing a number of bears. The Nisqually glacier proved so dangerous that the party was not permitted to approach closer than 150 feet to the mass of ice. Oregon and Washington, the party observed, take great pride in their highways which are beautified by native trees, shrubs and wild flowers. Patrolmen are constantly employed picking up all paper and rubbish which they find strewn in the roadway. The party found Victoria a typically English city containing many quaint English gardens. A number of signs such as licensed premises (saloons), rental premises (house to let), motor correction (garage) appealed to them as being good English but unusual to Americans.

The party returned through Washington where they followed the north side of the Columbia River and enjoyed a birds-eye view of Portland, Oregon, the cliffs and waterfalls. They then went on to Mt. Hood Loop with its snow and clumps of rhododendrons. Here a snow plow was seen and looked. Another treat was a view of Mt. Shasta at sunset. In the Yosemite and the Mariposa grove of redwoods they passed hundreds of automobiles and crowds of people. The party spent a day with friends at Bass Lake, near Fresno. They express themselves as being delighted to spend a quiet Fourth at their own cottage in Sierra Madre Canyon as a happy ending to their summer vacation.

WATCH YOUR HANDWRITING

(Bertha W. Hall, in Weston's Record)

NO ONE knows what the "handwriting on the wall" at the feast of Belshazzar looked like. Of one thing we may be sure; it reflected all the terrifying indignation of an out-raged Deity. It is not necessary that we employ a recording angel with pen and ink to keep track of the good and evil we do in life. Each one of us writes his own record in the book of Life and reveals his true self in the way he writes. The real story is there in script.

Search through your correspondence and find the friend who writes a very large, heavy and important hand. You will find that he acts, thinks and converses in superlatives. He sees only the grand and magnificent; over looks trifles, and takes cognizance only of those things which are unusually dignified and imposing. Often he is the natural Sybarite—a lover of luxury and elegance. He would rather employ twelve persons and make ten thousand dollars a year than employ six persons and make twenty-five thousand a year. Whether he can afford it or not, very likely he will drive a Pierce-Arrow or a Cadillac. No matter how his wife fusses about his outward show he will continue to have the most employees, the most servants, the best car. And, I fancy, he wears spats!

Generally speaking, the less "flourish" and plainer the writing, the less pretension, artificiality, vanity and conceit is reflected. Simple, plain, honest and sincere people write simple, plain, direct and honest "hands." It is a reflection of their inner nature which they can conceal no more than they can stop breathing and live.

The initials or capital letters in a communication are most important touchstones in pointing out the degree of modesty, simplicity, good taste and refinement. They are also just as important in designating the coarse, crude, ungainly and vulgar, ostentatious nature. The capital "M" is the most important of the capital letters graphologically, because it can be made in so many ways. Cultivated and refined people make their capitals simple and plain. Modesty is accentuated if they are only about half as high again as the small letters. Capitals no larger than small letters disclose a lack of independence, with much humility.

Capitals made to resemble type or printed forms accentuate refinement and good taste. Such letters always disclose cultivation and either artistic sense or else poetic feeling. Bad taste, shallowness, pretension, coarseness and vulgarity are always disclosed in snail-shell curls. (This does not refer to tiny hooks at either the beginning or end of a word.) Hooks, that turn up large or small, disclose more or less ill-will and spitefulness toward people and things in general. Many "t" crosses carry these spiteful hooks, as well as left-to-right terminals. Some times hooks are added to both ends of a horizontal stroke, and may turn up or down, or one may turn in a direction opposite from the other. Tenacious hooks and ill-will hooks are usually bent sharply; they are not curved hooks. Malicious hooks, however, are mostly bent up at a rather sharp angle, while tenacious or selfish hooks are turned down or curved inwardly. They all have their particular little message.

Michael Angelo said that "trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle." So it is in the application of the principles of graphology. Nothing is too insignificant or too minute to take into consideration in weighing the evidence and forming the conclusion. A simple little thing like a "t-cross" for instance, may not on the surface appear to be worthy of much attention, yet it is a very important feature of a person's handwriting.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

THIS from the Greenfield (Ia.) Free Press will bring smiles or tears to every country newspaper man, according to his make-up and experience. The article tells "why country printers' hair turns gray." And this is why: "Consistency, thou art a jewel—and then some. For more than twenty-two years Barney Finn has been issuing the Sarcosie (Mo.) Record, and fifty-two times each year has been boosting the town and its merchants, laboring incessantly for the home town, first, last and all the time. As a reward, fourteen merchants recently prepared copy for a pamphlet designed to encourage the 'trade-at-home' spirit, broadcasting the theory that 'if it is sold it can be bought at home. Help your town grow. Show where you live.' Then they sent it out of town to be printed."—The American Press.

PLAYING WITH FIRE

AS you drive about town and look at the vacant lots which have been cleared of dry growth it is interesting to note the evidence of intelligence used—or the lack of it.

Some people plow the weeds and grass into the soil, thus returning valuable elements which will enrich and nourish anything planted there in the future.

Others clear a space around the edge to prevent fire spreading, and then go over the ground carefully and see that a clean job of burning is done. They watch carefully to see that the fire does not endanger buildings nor damage growing things that ought to be preserved.

And then there is a class who deserve to be called vandals. Without any thought except to get through in a hurry they touch a match and "let 'er go." A wave of flame flashes across the lot, chars shrubs and trees that might have been left as a touch of green on the desolate ground, climbs high in the air to sear and wither the foliage on a row of street trees 40 feet high! They ought to be made to carry water a block for a whole year to water the roots of those trees!

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

BUT WHY WAIT?

The young daughter of JRE can't grow up any too fast to suit me. For just as soon as the safety pins can be spared from her wardrobe I'm going to ask her daddy to present them to Jim Farman and Woodson Jones. What for? My fond hope is, that they will use them to pin up the skirts of their store awnings. Then people who are more than five feet tall will not have to duck or be slapped in the face as they pass by those two well known and popular merchandise emporiums.

THE NEW POST OFFICE LOCATION—

With the post office located on the Isaacs property on South Baldwin Avenue a lot of people are going to discover to their surprise that Central Avenue is not the south boundary of the city of Sierra Madre. While most of the area and population of the city are located north of Central, some of us think the south side can't be beat for attractiveness.

Now and then some commuter admits that when he gets off the six o'clock car at night he is so intent on wending his weary way up the hill that he never ventures into the lower part of town. I can't imagine living in any town for any length of time without exploring it pretty thoroughly. Those who find time to wander through the south side find many of the most attractive homes in Sierra Madre. And when they reach Live Oak Avenue the Baldwin oaks seldom fail to bring exclamations of delight. I can testify to the lasting charm of those wonderful trees, with a vista through which reveals the expanse of the San Gabriel Valley below. No, the place is not for sale!

South Baldwin Avenue is one of Sierra Madre's most important gateways. It will become increasingly so, especially when the avenue is opened through the Baldwin ranch. An attractive building to house the post office will be a highly desirable improvement, as the present approach to the business section is not especially impressive.

SOMETIMES A CASUS BELLI—

"I have been called more different kinds of names than you can imagine for recommending the removal of a post office to some new site," said Inspector Smith of San Francisco, recently. "Sometimes the move was only for a short distance, and could not affect business conditions very much. But local jealousies sometimes result in bitter controversies. Merchants with stores near the post office think its removal will deprive them of some vested right."

The post office department, according to Mr. Smith, likes to avoid criticism where possible and for that reason is averse to disturbing existing conditions on general principles where a reasonably satisfactory renewal lease can be secured. That was the reason he gave for recommending a continuance of the post office in the Calley property where it has been the past fifteen years.

The chief virtue of Uncle Sam as a tenant is in the certainty of the rent check which comes once a quarter. But the post office does not pay high rent and requires the landlord to furnish all the expensive equipment. So there is the danger of having several thousand dollars worth of fixtures on your hands if your lease is not renewed at the end of the five-year or ten-year period.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED—

As an individual tenant the post office is not, therefore, especially desirable. It has a certain theoretical value as a magnet to business for other stores where the landlord may be able to collect higher rent. But Inspector Smith insists this value is more psychological than real and is based on the old post office tradition as a center of village life.

In the days when former Postmaster Dickson and C. S. Kersting negotiated the original lease on the present location it was a genuine business stroke. For Mr. Kersting had several hundred feet of business frontage on this side of the street which was greatly enhanced in value. In those days everybody had to come to the postoffice for their mail. And there was always the hope of mail, whether realized or not, to draw them. Nowadays, with carrier delivery service, nobody comes to the postoffice unless they have to. So the effect on retail business is hardly to be compared with what it used to be.

FIRE ENGINE ETIQUETTE—

"Pardon me if I suggest your people ought to learn how to act in the presence of a fire engine if they want to keep out of trouble when they come to Los Angeles," said a traveling salesman here Wednesday. "I saw your engine going to a fire just now. Instead of every auto pulling up to the curb and coming to a stop they all flocked into the street and started for where they thought the

By J. R. E.

Well, folks, we had Lela Joy down beside the babbling brook over the Fourth of Independence and gave her the first dip in the briny. From the indications of delight, manifested vocally as well as otherwise, she is going to out-Grude Gertrude and will probably grow up just in time to enter—and win—the Honolulu-San Francisco marathon. And gony, how we wished for one of those movin' picture machines like Woodson Jones (this is NOT an advertisement) sells. That first dip would have been something to look at twenty years from now.

The bambino also indicates a very strong leaning toward the guitar. We had hoped she would prefer the violin like Elizabeth Morgridge and grow up to be a wonderful violinist—also like Elizabeth. By the way, folks, I suppose you all know that Miss Elizabeth has the sense of "perfect pitch" as it is known in musical circles. Strike a piano key when she cannot see the piano and she can tell the note struck—sharps, flats or naturals. With such a gift, together with a natural fondness for the instrument, the young lady will go far in music.

Lela Joy also has a sense of pitch, but her's will only serve her in good stead in case she selects ball-playing as a profession. You ought to see her pitch things out of her little bed in the early morning!

And, as I remarked, we went to the beach for the week-end. If anybody smacks me on the shoulder and remarks "I'm glad to see yer back" I'm going to kill him and let the body lie.

Right now I wouldn't give six dollars for all the frontage along the Pacific Coast—if I had to use it. But next Fourth of July I'd probably thrust my bare parts out in the sun just as I did a couple days ago.

Sunday we saw a road hog get his "comeuppance," but of course it didn't happen on the road—because that never does happen. But this road hog came down to the beach with his party, twenty-five persons in all, and being prepared for the week-end, apparently, unfurled a big 12x12 tent right in front of our own carefully selected location. When the "big-top" was up we were as effectually excluded from a view of the ocean as if we had been camped on the north side of Mt. Wilson, and not only that, but the party had pitched their merchandise from Omar the Tentmaker right on some blankets and things owned by some people who were down in the ocean. Well, to make a short tale long enough, the gang proceeded to unpack and unwork enough food for a circus, including the menagerie, when along came a beach cop and made 'em take the tent down. And strangely enough there wasn't a soul around who seemed to sympathize with 'em. But we'll bet that cop will have a heavy mail next Christmas.

Those people were probably the kind that go touring about the country tearing up all the wild flowers by the roots, cutting down barbed wire fences designed to foil such wanton destruction, and leaving their paper and refuse in the spot they happen to pick for their foray. There ought to be an enforceable law directed at such folks, in the mountains as well as on the beaches.

We'll bet two dollars that ten thousand bootleggers are glad that salary cut didn't stick in Hollywood.

"Scientist Due to Test Stars' Heat."—Headline in Los Angeles paper. The time to have made the test, it seems, would have been right after the announcement of the 10 per cent cut in salaries.

So we're going to move the postoffice! That means a brand new business building on frontage that can stand improving. Baldwin Avenue, being the oldest site for business houses in town has, naturally, the oldest business buildings—most of 'em—in town. It is not without the bounds of probability that the new building will stimulate building activities along Baldwin avenue with the erection of other business blocks and the improving of those already there. This kolm conductor has not lost his dream of a highly developed business section in which every building will blend itself into this foothills atmosphere of ours, and when that happens we'll have a town that tourists from all over the world will come to see. The new post office building may be just the proper impetus to start a movement of that kind under way.

fire was. Some of them crossed an intersection where the engine was about to make a turn, and they cluttered up the street generally. If they try anything like that in Los Angeles, they will find themselves in police court pronto."

When getting together your camping equipment don't forget that a Thermos Jar will add to your pleasures by keeping your food warm.

Funny, Isn't It?

That word "Acme" may not be a big one but when we split it up the letters line up this way—"Acme Covers Most Efficiently." Of course this means "Acme Quality" Paint and kindred materials.

When a person is satisfied with his purchase of any given brand he usually buys more of the same brand when needed. This explains the rapid increase in our

Hallucinations

(By W.S.H.)

The farther east we go, the shorter the miles, the more attractive the service stations and larger and seemingly more prosperous the cemeteries—especially in Iowa.

Our brief experience with mud convinces us that if we ever get into a real honest-to-goodness Iowa mud-hole, just in its prime, the quickest and cheapest way out will be to go on through to China and drive back.

EAT HUMBLE POTATO

A potato a day does not keep the doctor away, but it is a good "stand-by" in balancing a child's diet. The potato has a place all of its own, and no other food staple is an adequate substitute. Rice has been suggested during potato shortages. Rice can take the potato's place in calories but not in the important nutritive protein, vitamins and minerals unless the unpurified rice is used.

Potatoes together with fruits, other vegetables and milk give bases to the body system, while rice, meat, eggs and cereals give acids. The body needs to balance on these.

Potatoes give a fair supply of vitamins B and C, not so much of vitamin A, but are very liberal in calories and minerals, especially iron which is greatly needed by the child.

Valuable as it is in the child's diet, the potato, however, must not be allowed to crowd out the green leafy vegetables which are superior in vitamins and minerals.

The potato is a true bargain in food values, purchased as it usually can be, at reasonable prices, and should therefore be put early in the child's diet. Begin with a teaspoon or two of baked potato about the beginning of the second year. The bland flavor of the potato readily induces the child to like it and he is able to digest it easily. The three-year-old child can eat his small baked (preferred) or boiled potato with the skins on, regularly. Cooking with the skins on retains the minerals. Seasonings or salt, a little butter or cream are sufficient. Long cooking greatly lessens the vitamin C amount. This can be replenished in the daily orange juice or tomato juice.

Because the potato is palatable and easily prepared is no excuse for poor cooking. It should always be well cooked to ensure a child's eating it and properly digesting it—and it should play an important part in the child's diet.

Timely Fire Counsel For Hot Weather

Sacramento, June 20. — Tentative plans for the organization of the California Forestry Vigilante Committee, a citizen's league pledged to cooperate with the State Board of Forestry in warning of carelessness smokers and others who touch off the flames of destruction in the state's forest and grazing areas were formulated here today by Deputy Forester W. B. Rider.

With the return of State Forester M. B. Pratt, now on a tour of inspection in the northern park and forest districts, definite steps will be taken to enlist the aid of the state auto clubs and similar organizations in forming the vigilante committee, Rider asserted.

The vigilante committee, which will be composed of some 10,000 motorists, according to present plans, would be particularly valuable in securing enforcement of the state law prohibiting motorists from throwing burning tobacco and matches from their machines. Each member of the committee, while traveling on the highway, would be charged with the responsibility of securing the license number of any motorist violating the fire law.

To facilitate organization of an effective volunteer organization, members of the committee will be issued membership cards, it is planned. It is possible that a card system also will be perfected for reporting the license numbers of violators, the location of fires caused by their carelessness, together with other necessary information in prosecuting the offenders.

The forestry vigilantes would also be expected to report incendiary fires, or blazes caused by open mufflers or started by campers.

"Our report for the month just ended," declared Rider, "shows that 25 per cent of the fires were started by motorists throwing cigars or cigarettes from their machines. In several cases, prosecutions have been carried out successfully, but our efficiency in this work would be more than trebled by a volunteer organization of motorists pledged to obey the law and help in enforcing it."

"To date, our first losses this year have been exceedingly low, due largely to an augmented fire patrol, and the wholehearted cooperation of citizens and other state departments. As an example of the real interest which private citizens have in this work of conserving our forests, the suggestion for the formation of the citizen's committee was made by A. M. Everson, 559 North Street, Oakland, as a result of his experience in fighting blazes started by careless smokers."

The area burned over thus far this year totals 3402 acres, of which grazing land represented 3189 acres. Eleven fires were reported set by cigarette smokers, and an equal number were caused by campers.

Variety For Movie Fans At Wistaria

Those who are fond of animals will get a thrill from "Some-where in Sonora," the first National feature coming to the Wistaria tonight and Saturday. Ken Maynard, the star, puts his horse, Tarzan, thru a maze of most unusual tricks. Tarzan's side-partner in the picture is Ken's pet dog, who is likewise extremely intelligent and well-trained.

If you enjoy love and romance, adventure and bright, sparkling comedy, don't fail to mark down "Naughty But Nice" on your calendar for the week. It is Colleen Moore's newest—and to date brightest First National picture, coming Sunday and Monday.

"Blind Alleys," Thomas Meighan's latest Paramount production, reaching the Wistaria Tuesday and Wednesday is an exciting melodrama of two persons who become separated on the first night of their honeymoon. All sorts of thrills, including a second woman, enter into it before the fadeout. She's back! Mildred Davis, leading lady of "A Sailor Made Man," "Dr. Jack" and "Safety Last," more beautiful than ever, comes for the first time in four years next Thursday when she appears in Fred Newmeyer's sparkling Paramount comedy, "Too Many Crooks."

The new Hemet Odd Fellows Lodge building is to be dedicated some time this month. A big dance is to be held in the building Saturday night, July 9.

Eighth of a series of Health Prescriptions

NEVER take medicine in the dark. One should always read the label on the package before taking medicine from its container. Be just as careful as the pharmacist who fills your prescriptions. He is taught to read the label at least three times when removing a drug from its container; first, when he takes the bottle from the shelf; second, just before he pours out the desired quantity, and, third, as he replaces the bottle to the shelf.

Lack of knowledge in regard to the preservation and use of remedies, and the accidental use of poisons often entails serious consequences. To take medicine from the wrong bottle is dangerous, so never take or administer a medicine when your mind is occupied by other matters.

When you dispose of medicines either burn them or commit them to the sewer as some child might be tempted by them if found in your tin can box.

Cheap Juice To Lighten Home Work

Reduction in electric rates as of July 1st will benefit all of the 365,000 domestic, industrial and agricultural consumers of the Southern California Edison company to the extent of 14 per cent in the new rates for lighting service. Most of the present-day consumers can remember back to the time when electricity was used in residences for lighting purposes only at night, but the development of the large variety of electrical appliances which are now found a necessity in practically every home has completely changed the order of things. Today almost every home in Southern California has occasion to make frequent use of electricity for operating some labor saving device, or in preparation of meals, while the use of electric light has expanded in many directions and is found to be the highest type of burglary insurance.

zines are advocating a more extensive use of electrical cooking appliances in order that all members of the family can assist in the preparation of meals.

With the numerous types of appliances on the market, a complete meal may be cooked and served at the dining table, and with the discovery of additional uses for electricity in the home and new devices available, we can truly conduct all activity in homes by simply pressing the electric button. While the cost of practically all other commodities is still materially higher than in 1913, the price of electricity is being constantly reduced.
